Whadata Cookies Policy

Date of Policy: July 17, 2026

This Cookies Policy explains how Whadata AI, Inc. (“Whadata,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) uses cookies and similar tracking technologies in connection with your use of our website, platform, and related services (collectively, the “Services”). This policy should be read alongside our Customer Data Privacy Policy.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small data files placed on your device when you visit a website. They store information about your interactions and preferences to enhance your experience and enable core site functionality.

2. Why Do We Use Cookies?

We use cookies and similar technologies to:

- Enable secure login and user authentication;
- Remember user preferences (e.g., language or region);
- Collect analytics and usage statistics to improve performance;
- Monitor traffic and prevent fraudulent activity;
- Support marketing and communications (if applicable).

3. Types of Cookies We Use

- Essential Cookies: Required to operate core Services (e.g., authentication, load balancing).
- Functional Cookies: Enable preferences like language, region, and accessibility settings.
- Analytics Cookies: Help us understand usage patterns via analytics tools.
- Marketing Cookies (if applicable): Used to deliver personalized advertising across platforms.

4. Your Cookie Choices and Controls

You can manage or block cookies through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to control cookies via their privacy settings. Note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality and performance of the Services.

If you are in a jurisdiction that requires cookie consent (e.g., the European Economic Area or the United Kingdom), you may be presented with a cookie banner or notice when accessing the Services.

We currently honor browser-level “Do Not Track” signals where technically feasible, but this is not guaranteed.

5. Third-Party Cookies

We may allow trusted third parties (e.g., analytics or marketing providers) to place cookies through our Services. These third parties are responsible for their own cookie practices and may use cookies subject to their own privacy policies. A list of third-party cookies is available upon request.

6. Updates to This Cookies Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy periodically. If we make material changes, we will notify you via our website or other communication channels. Please check this policy regularly for the latest information.

7. Contact Us

If you have any questions about our use of cookies, please contact us at support@whadata.com.
